Who is ACET-Global?

The Australian Centre for Education and Training - Global (ACET-Global) has two equally important sections: business and non-profit.

The business side provides training solutions to organisations locally and internationally, along with guest lectures and substitute teaching at Australian tertiary institutions.

The non-profit side of ACET-Global tackles issues important across the world, through independent, non-profit initiatives.

These initiatives contribute positively to community living standards and social issues, and offer support for sustainability and environmental projects.

What is the GPP?

The Global Peace Project (GPP) aims to highlight the recurring themes of peace, love and compassion for humanity that are common throughout the world's major religions.

The GPP's overall goal is to promote global understanding, peace, and tolerance.

How will the GPP contribute to peace and harmony?

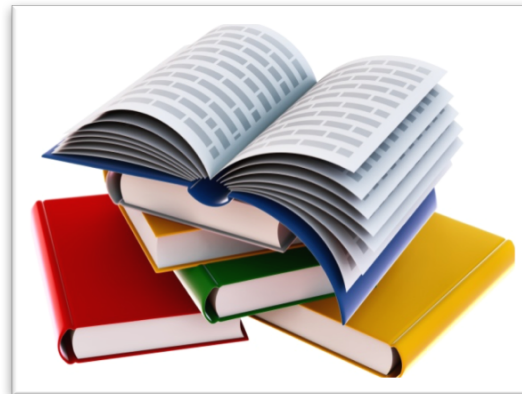

The GPP contributes to peace and harmony by making relevant, practical educational resources easily accessible and freely available to people around the world.

These resources include videos, talks, articles, books, images, and music.

The main focus of the GPP is the development and publication of a number of free, short books.

These books outline the core tenets of several world religions, with the goal of promoting harmony and understanding across all faiths and people.

Who is contributing to the GPP?

ACET-Global has brought together a team of people from various nationalities, as well as diverse academic and religious backgrounds, to contribute their knowledge and expertise to the Global Peace Project.

If you would like to get involved, please get in touch!
Contact details are at the end of this presentation.

When and where is this happening?

The GPP's first book, Global Peace: An Islamic Perspective, was published in 2015.

As ACET-Global is based in Melbourne, Australia, the GPP originates in Australia.

However, the GPP has been developed to be relevant and useful throughout the world.

The books are currently available in English. Translations of the books into other languages will be available in the near future.

Why has ACET-Global chosen to focus on world peace?

ACET-Global's non-profit initiatives aim to improve the world in meaningful ways.

As humanity, we desperately need to unite and stand against oppression and injustice.

Ongoing religion-based conflicts around the world continue to result in large-scale violence and the consequent suffering of millions of people.

All of the world's major religions teach peace, love and compassion. Yet religion-based conflict continues, showing that misunderstandings and (sometimes deliberate) misrepresentations of various religions are still commonplace.

ACET-Global is therefore endeavouring to promote global peace and acceptance through education.

By fostering knowledge and a deeper understanding of different religions, we can contribute to sustainable world peace.

What can you do?

We warmly welcome all support of the GPP.

You can help by:

- Telling others about the project,
- Forwarding this presentation to friends and contacts,
- Reading and sharing the resources at <http://www.acet-global.com/global-peace-project.html>,
- Volunteering or interning with us,
- Donating money or services,
- Contacting us about becoming a partner or sponsor (if you represent a business or organisation),
- and most importantly,
- Adopting a peaceful, tolerant approach to others.
